

RENTING A CAR

1. Sign up □ Sign up for Rento with email. We'll confirm your identity and eligibility so you can become an approved driver.
2. Find the perfect car □ Enter your travel dates and location and search our vast selection of unique, locally-owned cars.
3. 3. Book it □ Book the car of your dreams. The owner will confirm or decline your trip within eight hours, but typically it's much sooner.
4. Pick up the car □ Meet the car owner to pick up the car. Many owners offer delivery, so they may bring it right to you. □ Walk around the car, show them your license, grab the keys, and drive off into the sunset.
5. Return the car □ At the end of your trip, replace the gas you used and meet the owner to drop off the car. Walk around the car again, hand over the keys, give them a high five, and start planning your next adventure.

LISTING YOUR CAR

1. List your car □ Create a free listing with a few clicks. Describe your car, upload some clean photos, and you're ready to go. □ Be sure to keep your calendar up to date so travelers know when your car is available.

2. Respond to requests □ You'll get notified when someone requests, or books your car instantly. Confirm or decline the trip as soon as possible, and contact the traveler if you have any questions.
3. Meet your guest □ Coordinate where and when you'll meet your guest. Check their license, walk around the car, check the fuel and mileage, and send them off on their adventure.
4. Kick back and earn □ Rest easy, Turo covers your car with $1 million in liability insurance and 24/7 roadside assistance throughout the trip, so you can just watch the dollars roll in.
5. Pick up your car □ Meet your guest, make sure everything's in order, and head on home. Don't forget to rate and review them in the app to help keep our marketplace strong and honest
